

Rolling The First Ball 1987

Kate Linder of Jamestown rolled out the first ball Saturday at Fountain Bowl to officially open the 52nd annual New York State Women's Bowling Association Tournament in Jamestown. Linder is a past president of the Jamestown Women's Bowling Association for 16 years and was secretary for 4 years. She was elected to the NYSWBA Hall of Fame in 1979 and served on the NYSWBA Board of Directors for 18 years. Competition also took place at the Jamestown Bowling Company and Ten Pin Lanes. Results are listed on page 19.