CSHOF Website Additions

Since its launch in December 2007, the Chautauqua Sports Hall of Fame website has seen an amazing growth in the content available to users. Now closing in on 1,400 pages, it is the go-to site for information about the 191 inductees in the CSHOF Hall of Honor. Typing the name of one of our inductees into any popular internet search engine will lead one to www.chautauquasportshalloffame.org.

In the past twelve months, new content has been added to the web pages of the following 94 inductees:

Adamczak, Jim	Annarella, Joe	Asquith, Art
Barton, Dick	Bedient, Hugh	Bergey, Bill
Bishop, Ben	Blackmer, Ron	Blaisdell, Harold

Our goal is to preserve the sports legacy of our inductees and one way we do that is through the CSHOF website. We thank our treasured inductees and their families for their assistance in building the site by providing photos and articles for us to scan and post. We welcome additional submissions.

CSHOF Picnic

The annual CSHOF picnic will be Monday, August 13th, 5:00 p.m., at the Lakewood Rod and Gun Club. All CSHOF members and a guest are cordially invited to attend free of charge. Last year nearly 150 folks enjoyed a wonderful evening of camaraderie. Hope to see you there.

“The Pride of Jamestown” - An Interview with Irv Noren

On Tuesday, August 14th, one day after the CSHOF picnic, the Chautauqua Sports Hall of Fame will premiere its documentary film, “The Pride of Jamestown” – An Interview with Irv Noren, at 7:00 p.m. at the Robert H. Jackson Center in Jamestown.

Irving Arnold Noren, a 1985 CSHOF inductee, was born November 29, 1924 in Jamestown, New York. He was a former professional baseball and basketball player. Noren was an outfielder in the Major Leagues from 1950 through 1960 for the Washington Senators, New York Yankees, Kansas City Athletics, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cubs and Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the National Basketball League's Chicago American Gears in 1946–47. Later in his baseball career, Noren was a minor league manager, scout and the third-base coach of the 1972–73 World Series champion Oakland Athletics. As a player and coach between 1950 and 1975, he was a member of five world championship teams.

Chris Olsen, son of CSHOF inductee Ted Olsen, a Los Angeles based attorney, film producer and author, is a strong and loyal supporter of the Chautauqua Sports Hall of Fame. At the behest of CSHOF President Randy Anderson, Olsen visited Mr. Noren at his Oceanside, California home and conducted a lengthy video interview with him. Among the many topics covered were Noren's recollections of his early years growing up in the Allen Park neighborhood of Jamestown, his father's decision to relocate the family to Pasadena, Noren's friendship with Jackie Robinson, his minor and major league baseball career, his close associations with New York Yankee legends Mickey Mantle, Whitey Ford and Casey Stengel, Noren's time as a third base coach for the World Champion Oakland A's owned by Charlie Finley and his post-baseball life.

Olsen forwarded the raw video to Anderson who then edited the content into a 90-minute film in which the 93-year-old Noren displays a sharp memory, a youthful enthusiasm and a deep appreciation of the remarkable life he has lived.

The public is cordially invited to a free screening of the film “The Pride of Jamestown” – An Interview with Irv Noren, on Tuesday, August 14, 7 p.m., at the Robert H. Jackson Center in Jamestown.
